

Invite you to

The Launch of

Καίμπριτζ Κέντρο Ελληνικών Σπουδών
The Cambridge Centre for Greek Studies

A forum for specialists in the history, culture, and language of the Greek peninsula and associated territories from prehistoric times to the present day.

The event will feature a symposium:

The Long
Antiquity:
Greece and Greek throughout the Ages

Exploring and questioning the idea of Greek continuity throughout the ages.

Keynote Speakers:

Dr Liana Giannakopoulou (University of Cambridge)

Professor Constanze Güthenke (University of Oxford)

Professor Edith Hall (King's College, London)

Dr Regina Karousou-Fokas (University of Cambridge)

Professor Mark Janse (Ghent University)

Professor Irene Lemos (University of Oxford)

Professor Gonda Van Steen (King's College, London)

Professor Dimitris Tziovas (University of Birmingham)

Venue: St John's College, Cambridge, CB2 1TP

Date: Friday 28th June, 2019

Contact: gb599@cam.ac.uk